

PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF PLATIKISTAN

Work-Integrity-Progress

CONSTITUTION

Preamble

The People's Democratic Republic of Platikistan (PDRP) is a micronation in Europe, whose sole aim is to substantially improve the lives of its noble citizens and position itself as the most successful micronation in the world. Platikistan shall abide by all internationally recognized rules and promote universal values and best practices, unless where a given rule, value or practice is deemed incompatible with this constitution.

President PLATY (PLATY), a Cronos token, is the official currency of the People's Republic of Platikistan, and the Platikistani Government is responsible for ensuring its sustainable appreciation and survival.

The leaders of Platikistan are those who have pledged to always act in good faith and always take into account the interests and rights of the citizens. Each member of Government must hold a reasonable amount of PLATY, demonstrate enough integrity and humility, and be committed to pursuing sustainable benefits, rather than immediate ones. They shall not interfere in the political affairs of other sovereign states, be it in words or in deeds, at least not in their official capacities.

Platikistan shall not claim any territory of any sovereign State. However, nothing prevents it from acquiring its land or territories, in accordance with the applicable laws.

Section A: Form of the state

Article 1

The People's Democratic Republic of Platikistan (PDRP) is the official name of the nation of Platikistan. It shall equally be permissible to refer to it as Platikistan, or simply PLATY. The PDRP is an enlightened democratic-tyranny, headed by the eternal President PLATY. While its establishments could be at different corners of the planet, Platikistan shall remain a centralized unitary state, and shall never negotiate its form. The Prime Minister must ensure the survival of the Nation and its PLATY token beyond the market cycles.

Article 2

The currency, Nation, major rivers, lakes, mountains and distinctive features of Platikistan must always derive their names from President PLATY, whose sole mission is to serve the interests of the people of Platikistan. The citizens shall be referred to as Platikistanis (singular: Platikistani).

Article 3

Work-Integrity-Progress is the motto of Platikistan. The flag and emblem displayed above are the official symbols of Platikistan. Other symbols, such as an anthem and a slogan, shall be adopted by the Government and be modified whenever the need arises.

Article 4

English is the official language of Platikistan. All the other languages of the world are the nation's working languages.

Article 5

Love and Humanity shall be the official religions of Platikistan. However, each Platikistani is free to adhere to other religious movements, on condition that this does not become a topic for debate in Platikistan.

Article 6

Platikistan shall be neutral regarding all political and internal affairs of any nation. It shall never take sides or support any foreign political movement against another. However, each Platikistani is free to belong to any peaceful political movement, if he or she may so desire. In that case, he or she shall be acting as an individual, and not on behalf of Platikistan.

Article 7

The Government shall ensure that the official website and social media accounts of Platikistan remain active, current, and meet generally acceptable standards. This shall equally apply to any physical addresses of Platikistan.

Section B: The Government

Section B.1. The Executive

Article 8

Platikistan shall always be under the rulership of President PLATY, whose official name is His Excellency Dr. Ntuifam Otu PLATY, Field Marshal, Lord of all the Beasts of the Earth and Fishes of the Sea, Supreme Leader and the Eternal President of Platikistan. President PLATY is invisible and immortal, and the Prime Minister of Platikistan shall always represent him.

Article 9

The Executive shall constitute the following administrative bodies:

- a. The Government Headquarters and Office of the Prime Minister

- b. The Sovereign Ministry of Foreign Relations, Trade and Win-Win Partnerships
- c. The Sovereign Ministry of Law, Fairness and Uprightness
- d. The Sovereign Ministry of Wealth, Money and Financial Freedom
- e. The Sovereign Ministry of Knowledge, Development, and Technology
- f. The Sovereign Ministry of Awareness, Transparency, and Marketing
- g. The Sovereign Ministry of Enjoyment, Relaxation and Fun

The competence of each of these ministries is defined in the following articles.

Article 10

The Government Headquarters and Office of the Prime Minister shall be responsible for the day-to-day administration of Platikistan, in accordance with the instructions of President PLATY. It shall be headed by an Honorary Prime Minister and Custodian of the PLATY token, whose designation shall be carried out by the highest holders of the PLATY token, on behalf of President PLATY.

- a. The prime Minister shall have the powers to appoint, promote and dismiss other government officials (including ministers and ambassadors), approve budgets, and supervise the activities of all the other ministries. In consultation with the top PLATY holders, he may decide to give Platikistan a new orientation, and create new ministries or dissolve or restructure an existing one.
- b. The Prime Minister shall incarnate the core values of Platikistan, and for the purposes of stability, may retain his position as long as he receives the support of the top holders of PLATY.
- c. As Custodian of the PLATY token, the Prime Minister shall have a final say in all matters relating to the token. He shall ensure that each decision reflects the supreme interests of Platikistan and the legitimate aspirations of its noble citizens.

Article 11

The Sovereign Ministry of Foreign Relations, Trade and Win-Win Partnerships shall be responsible for all relations with the outside world, be they of business or diplomatic nature. The Ministry shall conclude agreements on behalf of Platikistan, in close collaboration with the Prime Minister.

Article 12

The Sovereign Ministry of Law, Fairness and Uprightness shall be responsible for enforcing this constitution and other relevant instruments, and promoting the rule of law in Platikistan. It shall ensure that the Government complies with all its legal and moral obligations, while guaranteeing the citizens' right to justice. The Ministry shall take legal measures, including peaceful ones, to protect the Government against any national or foreign threats. It is responsible for resolving disputes between other ministerial departments, and in case of any escalations, the Prime Minister shall have the final say.

Article 13

To ensure the appreciation and survival of the PLATY token and improve the lives of the citizens, the Sovereign Ministry of Wealth, Money and Financial Freedom shall plan, manage, and oversee the use of all government-controlled assets. It shall advise the Prime Minister and all other authorities on financial matters.

Article 14

The Sovereign Ministry of Knowledge, Development, and Technology shall be responsible for promoting education and the advancement of technology in Platikistan and cooperate with foreign entities with a view of achieving its objectives, and grant scholarships to both nationals and non-nationals of Platikistan.

Article 15

The Sovereign Ministry of Awareness, Transparency, and Marketing shall be responsible for communication in Platikistan. It shall take measures to bring Platikistan and its PLATY Token to the attention of the world. It shall publicize Government actions and achievements in Platikistan and beyond, and ensure that the official website and social media accounts of Platikistan remain active, current, and meet acceptable standards.

Article 16

The Sovereign Ministry of Enjoyment, Relaxation and Fun shall be responsible for ensuring leisure in Platikistan and abroad, including the promotion of tourism, social events and other forms of celebrations. It shall manage the recreational facilities of Platikistan.

Article 17

Each Ministry shall be headed by an Honorary Minister, and the scope of its duties can be extended by the Prime Minister through an administrative act (decree). Although an honorary position, nothing prevents the Prime Minister from allocating allowances for each minister, in close collaboration with the Sovereign Ministry of Wealth, Money and Financial Freedom.

Article 18

For internal convenience, each Minister may reorganize its ministerial department into smaller units, and appoint the leaders of each unit, in close collaboration with the Prime Minister.

Article 19

Each ministry shall cooperate with all other administrative bodies of Platikistan, to ensure the smooth functioning of the Government. Two or more ministries may mutualize their efforts to achieve specific goals. Each minister shall be answerable to the Prime Minister.

Section B.2. The Legislative

Article 20

The citizens of Platikistan all act as Members of Parliament, and must be consulted on specific matters concerning their Nation. However, the Prime Minister and his or her Government retain the powers to adopt any acts that they judge appropriate and are in the supreme interest of Platikistan.

Section B.3. The Judiciary

Article 21

In conformity with Article 10 of this Constitution, the Sovereign Ministry of Law, Fairness and Uprightness shall exercise judiciary powers.

Section C: Other elements of statehood

Section C.1. Population

Article 22

All holders of the PLATY token are automatically recognized as citizens of Platikistan. However, to become a noble citizen with the right to vote and enjoy other benefits and privileges, one must hold a reasonable amount of PLATY over a certain period. The amount of PLATY and the required period shall be determined by the Sovereign Ministry of Wealth, Money and Financial Freedom, taking into account the price and other circumstances. Irrespective of the amount of PLATY held, the Prime Minister may exceptionally confer citizenship on a given individual who has significantly contributed to the development of Platikistan.

Section C.2. Land

Article 23

Platikistan shall not claim any physical territory in any part of the world. However, the Government may acquire a piece or pieces of land in any sovereign country, which would host Platikistani institutions and facilities, and accept payments in PLATY.

Article 24

The Government shall acquire and manage a limited amount of virtual lands, especially in the form of non-fungible tokens (NFTs), for the people of Platikistan. The lands must be tradable.

Article 25

The Government must ensure that it remains the highest holder of Platikistani lands, and must take measures to give them adequate utility.

Section C.3. Currency and finances

Article 26

President PLATY (PLATY), a Cronos token, shall remain the official currency of Platikistan, and has a total supply of 1,000,000,000 tokens. While burns are not excluded, any increase in supply is and shall remain impossible and prohibited. Any proposal to modify its name is inadmissible and shall be considered an act of rebellion.

Article 27

The Government must ensure that it remains the highest holder of PLATY, especially by providing for untouchable reserves that must be jealously kept for a given period. After the expiration of said period, the reserves shall be repartitioned, without omitting new reserve allocations.

The exact amount of PLATY individually held by the Government shall be made public, and must be managed in a manner that ensures the survival of the token and the Nation, while ensuring that they remain the highest holders.

Article 28

The Government must take all necessary measures to ensure PLATY's progressive and sustainable appreciation, including giving it some utility and concluding profitable partnership agreements.

Article 29

The Government must act appropriately to stabilize the price of PLATY, including the allocation of funds for buybacks during the bear markets. A reasonable amount of PLATY shall equally be allocated for marketing, to bring the token to the attention of the world.

Article 30

A reasonable amount of PLATY shall equally be allocated to back the Platikistani virtual lands. Profits made from the lands shall be declared and allocated appropriately.

Article 31

Some amount of PLATY may be allocated for donations. The citizens shall be informed each time a particular sum is donated, with information on the purposes of the donation, and where appropriate, the identity of the beneficiary. Where a large amount of PLATY is donated, the Government shall conclude agreements with the beneficiary, to ensure that the amount is not sold in a manner that would significantly affect the price of the token.

A small amount shall equally be allocated for committed volunteers.

Article 32

The Government shall allocate a specific amount of PLATY for trade and investment, especially in foreign projects. Profit made from such ventures shall be declared and allocated appropriately.

Article 33

All Platikistani assets managed by the Government must be done in a transparent and responsible manner, and whenever appropriate, with the direct participation of Platikistanis who have the right to vote.

Article 34

Each Platikistani has the right to question the manner in which state funds are used, and the Government is required to provide appropriate answers.

Article 35

The Government must make it possible for those who mismanage funds or are involved in financial crimes are brought to book.

Section C.4. Army

Article 36

Each Platikistani is a soldier, and shall be solicited to take action whenever the Nation is attacked, or whenever the Government intends to disseminate information. Depending on the circumstance, each citizen is equally required to defend Platikistan and all its interests, even without an express request from the Government. Such action must be civilized, proportionate and well coordinated, taking into account the rights and freedoms of non-citizens of Platikistan.

- a. The possession and use of arms of any nature shall be prohibited.
- b. Each Platikistani is required to act in a responsible manner, be the incarnation of humility and moral rectitude and refraining from any acts of violence.
- c. Attacks and threats of a serious nature are to be immediately brought to the attention of the Government.

Section C.5. International Sovereignty

Article 37

After gaining recognition as a reliable micronation and business partner, the Government shall consider the establishment of diplomatic relations with other micronations worldwide, and other friendly entities. Ambassadors shall be appointed by the Prime Minister, once elected by the citizens. They shall be managed by the Sovereign Ministry of Foreign Relations, Trade and Win-Win Partnerships.

Section D: Main prohibitions
